2. Obligations

Each Receiving Party shall (a) hold Confidential Information in strict confidence using at least a reasonable standard of care; (b) use it solely to evaluate or conduct the business relationship; (c) limit access to personnel with a need to know who are bound by equivalent confidentiality obligations; and (d) not disclose, copy, reverse-engineer, or distribute it to any third party without the Disclosing Party’s prior written consent.

3. Exclusions

Legally compelled disclosures are permitted with prompt written notice where lawful.

4. Non-Circumvention

Neither Party shall use the other’s Confidential Information to solicit or transact directly with any client, prospect, vendor, or interpreter introduced by the other Party for the purpose of circumventing that Party, during the term and for twelve (12) months thereafter.

5. Term, Return & Remedies

This Agreement is effective for two (2) years; confidentiality obligations survive for three (3) years from disclosure. Upon request or termination, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information. All Confidential Information remains the sole property of the Disclosing Party; no license is granted. Each Party acknowledges that breach may cause irreparable harm entitling the Disclosing Party to injunctive relief in addition to other remedies. Governed by applicable laws as mutually agreed; may be executed in counterparts, including by electronic signature.
